PWD WELCOMES NEW FINANCE MANAGER/CFO

Palmdale, CA – Palmdale Water District (PWD) is pleased to announce that Viridiana Iguaran is its new Finance Manager/CFO. She started her new position in late July, replacing Dennis Hoffmeyer who retired after 36 years with the District.

In her new role managing the Finance Department, Iguaran is responsible for accounts payable, purchasing, payroll and customer finance. She works closely with a financial advisor on District investments.

“I’m humbled and honored to have this role where I can continue serving the public and my community,” Iguaran said. “It’s exciting to be contributing to an agency with such dedicated and knowledgeable staff.”

Iguaran’s experience includes years working for several municipalities. She most recently served as the Assistant Director of Finance for the city of Lancaster where she started as a Senior Analyst in Finance in 2020. She also held finance positions with the cities of Palmdale and Santa Clarita.

“The District is fortunate to have Viri as our Finance Manager,” said PWD General Manager Dennis D. LaMoreaux. “She brings a great combination of experience and education that has already started to benefit our customers.”

Iguaran received her Bachelor of Science in Finance from California State University, Northridge, and her Master of Science in Accounting from Syracuse University in New York. She lives in the Antelope Valley with her husband, a Los Angeles County Sheriff’s deputy, and their two children.

Since 1918, the Palmdale Water District has provided high-quality water at a reasonable cost. We pride ourselves on providing great customer care; advocating for local water issues that help our residents; educating the community on water-use efficiency; and leading our region in researching and implementing emerging technologies that increase operational efficiency.
